

Marcella R. Everage

March 14, 1944 - November 22, 2018

Marcella R. Everage, 74, passed away Thursday, November 22, 2018, in her home.

Marcella was born March 14, 1944, in Hamlet, Indiana, to August and Luella (Herbst) Beerwart and lived in the area most of her life. She was a retired manager of numerous mobile home parks. She attended church regularly and was a devout Christian that loved serving the Lord.

On June 12, 1964, in LaPorte, she was married to Frederick Castor, who preceded her in death on September 14, 1986. On February 14, 1999, in Kissimmee, FL, she was married to Sam Everage, who preceded her in death on December 23, 2016. Marcella is survived by one daughter, Cheri (David) Everage of Grovertown; two grandchildren, Christian Samuel Everage of Plymouth and Ashlie Marie Everage of Grovertown; two great-grandchildren, McKinley Grace Kennedy Everage of Knox and Aleigha Curry of Argos; and two brothers, Gus T.F. (Helena) Beerwart of Indianapolis and Carl Ed (Zinda) Beerwart of Hanna. She was preceded in death by her parents; two husbands; two brothers, Don "Lightning" Griffith and Bob "Red" Griffith; and one sister, Hazel Leigh.

There will be no visitation or services.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ So sorry to see that Marcy passed. "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". I always enjoyed the conversations I had with Marcy and Sam Everage. I pray the Lord Blesses your family.

*In Christian Love,
Jim Masterson*

Jim Masterson - November 26, 2018 at 09:09 AM

PM

“ Cheri, so sorry for your loss, always remember your mom as kind and friendly, thoughts and prayers are with you and your family

Phil Milner - November 24, 2018 at 05:50 PM