“ My deepest condolences to the family of Nanny Marge. Nanny Marge took care of me when I was just a wee tyke and she will always be remembered as a Grandmother-like figure to me. She was such a great lady and I was lucky to stay in touch with her as we both grew older. The last visit with Nanny Marge was a few years ago around Christmas time/Chris's birthday. She was very vibrant and witty and we had so much fun catching up. I wish I could've seen her again recently. I'm glad to know that she is at peace and with Chris now. Her spirit will live on forever and she has left an everlasting impression on my life through her nurturing as my Nanny. God bless you, Nanny Marge and God bless your family.
