

Marjorie R. Clarke

December 21, 1914 - September 23, 2010

KOONTZ LAKE-Marjorie Reamer Clarke, 95, passed away Thursday, September 23, 2010 in Millers Merry Manor, Plymouth, IN. Mrs. Clarke was born December 21, 1914 in Chicago, IL to Glen and Florence (Saunders) Finch and lived at Koontz Lake for 38 years, coming from Chicago. On August 2, 1934 in Chicago, she was married to Emmett J. Clarke, who preceded her in death in 1998. She was also preceded in death by her parents, son, Robert and Richard Clarke and daughter, Judith Clarke. Survivors include one daughter, Marilyn (David) Arndt of Koontz Lake; many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren and one sister, Betty Hay of Galva, IL. Mrs. Clarke was a former seamstress and she was a member of St. Patricks Church of Walkerton.

A Memorial Mass will be held at a later date. Cremation has taken place. Rannells Funeral Home, Koontz Lake Chapel is handling arrangements.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ My grandmother was the most loving person I have ever known. She defined the word grandmother. She was the person that taught me how to bake and sew. I was sad to find out that she was put in a nursing home and I was not notified until it was the day she had passed away. You are up in heaven now grandma with my mom and your sons and your husband. I know you will truly be missed.
Love Jenny

---

Jennifer Kulak - April 29, 2018 at 08:24 PM

CB

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. May your fond memories comfort you during this sad time.

---

Charlie Barko - April 29, 2018 at 08:24 PM