

Marsha G. St. Cin

July 3, 1947 - March 1, 2026

Marsha's arrangements times are still being confirmed.

Marsha St. Cin, 78, of Walkerton, passed away peacefully on Sunday, March 1, 2026, at St. Joseph Regional Medical Center.

Born on July 3, 1947, in Marked Tree, Arkansas. Marsha lived a life defined by kindness, compassion, and a deep love for her family and community. She dedicated many years as a mentor to special needs students through the JESSE program, where her patience, gentle spirit, and encouraging heart made a lasting difference in the lives of countless children and their families. Marsha was a devoted member of Antioch Baptist Church, where she was very active and found great joy in serving others and growing in her faith. She also gave many years to the Girl Scouts of America, helping guide and inspire young girls with the same warmth and guidance she offered so freely to everyone around her.

She was widowed by her first husband, John St. Cin whom she married July 17, 1967, and later by her second husband, Larry Foust whom she married on May 31, 2014. Though she endured great loss in her life, she remained steadfast in her love for her family and her trust in God.

Marsha had a playful and spirited side that all who knew her will fondly remember. She absolutely loved thrifting and garage sales, proudly displaying a bumper sticker that warned others her car stopped at every garage sale. She delighted in finding hidden treasures, but her greatest treasures were always her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Above all, Marsha cherished her family. She is lovingly remembered by her children, Tim St. Cin and Amy (Lynn) Scott; her grandchildren, Dustin (Chandra) St. Cin, Ashlee (Robert) Dill, Kylee St. Cin, Brianna Clark, and Zack Scott; and her seven great-grandchildren, who brought immense joy to her life. She is also survived by her sisters, Runae Hysell and Robin Flogger; and her brothers, Craig and Bill Hurley.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Laverne Hurley; her husbands, John St. Cin and Larry Foust; and three brothers.

Marsha will be remembered as a kind and faithful woman whose life was marked by service, generosity, and unwavering love for her family. Her gentle presence and warm smile will be deeply missed by all who were blessed to know her.
