

Martha A. Branscom

July 23, 1960 - March 16, 2026

Martha A. “Stymie” Branscom, 65, of Mentone, passed away peacefully at her home on Monday, March 16, 2026, following a short illness. Born on July 23, 1960, in Dayton, Ohio, she was the daughter of the late Johnnie and Roberta (Jones) Trusty.

Martha was a quiet and caring woman who found joy in life’s simple pleasures. She shared her childhood with her many brothers and sisters and carried those family bonds with her throughout her life. She will be fondly remembered by her loved ones as a devoted collector, an avid reader, and a passionate admirer of Elvis Presley.

Martha had a special fondness for collecting, especially anything related to M&M candies, a hobby that brought her much happiness over the years. More recently, she began collecting Santa Clauses, reflecting her deep love for the Christmas season, which was her favorite time of year. In her quieter moments, she could often be found with a book in hand, enjoying everything from fiction to nonfiction. She also had a love for music, particularly country, and cherished the memory of attending a George Strait concert at Soldier Field with her son Chris—an experience she held close to her heart.

She will be lovingly remembered by her three sons, Chris (Jen), Curtis, and Clinton (Kayla); seven grandchildren Koby, Christopher, Lylianah, Hannah, Jennalyn, Curtis Jr., and Aaron; her companion of 15 years, Dave; and her closest friend, Penny. She is also survived by one sister, Mary Masterson; and three brothers, Donald Trusty, Jim (Cindy) Trusty, and Richard (Becky) Trusty.

Martha was preceded in death by her parents and four brothers, Antona Trusty, David Trusty, Dennis Trusty, and Ronald Trusty.

In keeping with her wishes, Martha will be cremated. A graveside service at Fletcher Cemetery will be held at a later date. Please check back her for details.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the family to assist with final expenses.

Martha will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew her.

“ Marriage was my best friend and companion for 15 years .she loved me. I loved her. She took care of me in. So many ways. We laid in my bed, watching wheel of fortune and jeopardy. Every day. She was quiet. And thoughtful of myself, others, and my catts. She was very close to my black cat, named "soulbrother." He misses her badly. I loved her so. My life will never be as good., God save her, my beautiful lady
