“ The passing away of Mary has brought another sadness to me as she was one of the most influential people in Walkerton during the 50's with all the great volunteer work she did. She always pitched in and helped for the wherever the town needed it!!

May God comfort the family for their loss.

I was very blessed to have this sweet woman as my grand mother in law for all these years. I loved it when i was married to Jerry Hahn and we were living in Ca. by Camp Pendelton and Mary would write us letters and send us the Walkerton shopper so we could up on al the news from Walkerton, She will also be remembered by her grandklids , great grandkids for her never missing a birthday with a $2.00 bill in the card. And her famous chicken and noodles!!!They dont make em like her anymore!!
