“ I am writing this in behalf for Cindy, my wife. She wanted me to write about a really great friend that made her happy every time they were together. I will truly miss.

I want to thank Missy for being Cindy's friend. You are a blessing to Cindy and myself that truly cared for our wellbeing. You made Cindy a part of your family and she enjoyed being with you. You were her ear, to listen when she was down, hurt, or just plain sad. You made Cindy happier then what I could do at times. Thank you for taking your time to spend time with Cindy. Make her feel special and that she does count. The definition of a Best Friend is You. I will sorely miss you and love you. Thank you for helping us out when we really needed help. Your a treasure that will forever be in our hearts and memories. I know when we last talked that you told me I need to take care of Cindy. I will make a promise and I will keep it. You have done so much for me that no one could ever done for me. Thank you for looking out.

I know you were with me on my accident. Now I know you will be watching over us and especially Cindy. God smiled when you arrived in Heaven. Thank you for everything and especially being Cindy's best FRIEND. Love you
