“ Over the last 12 years I've had the opportunity to know Michael, he's had his good times and bad times but yet he seemed to always have a sense of humor. He could make you mad and laugh all at the same time. I will always remember the good times we shared. The laugh from your jokes or the serious talks when things weren't so great. Thank you for being a part of my family and most of all being a true friend over the years. RIP Michael
