“ Nick, I knew nothing of your death till I tracked you down because my xmas card I sent you was forwarded back to me. I loved you & enjoyed our lunches we shared together. You never had a easy life you only had yourself. God knows your life was hard, I wish I could have been with you on your last days hear on earth. I miss our phone conversations & when they stopped I knew something was wrong. Praise God you had a wonderful landlord that helped you with your needs & I tracked her down & she was so kind to let me know what happened. I love you Nick I will always keep you in my heart till we meet again in heaven. Rest in peace.
