“ Norma and Pat used to babysit for us. Myrna has been a friend for a long time. Their parents and mine were friends and I have very happy memories of those days.

May God give you strength and peace during the difficult days ahead.

My love to your family.

“ Norie was one of my favorite cousins and will be greatly missed! my deepest sympathy to Mike and family. Only wish I could have visited with Norie this year as we had planned. She was taken from us too early but know she went peacefully and will be now be with her parents and other family members. She was a very special person and my deepest condolences to Myrna, a very kind sister, in the lost of Norie!! Vicki .. Ft. Myers, Florida

“ Mike,
So sorry to hear of our loss of Norma.
I remember the fun days of high school and have missed the time we had there with you and Norma.
She will be deeply missed by all of us that have known her.
