“ Grandma I miss you so much. But at the same time I can feel you in every part of my heart. I will miss you advice and family stories. You were always someone I strived to be just like. You taught me hard lessons and you were always so proud of us. I will miss your laugh and smile. But, Most of all I will miss the way you used your generous heart. And your kindness to others. I promise I will continue to try and be like you and teach my children the same. I love you very much Grandma. And I am relieved that you are no longer suffering. Rest In Peace and I feel at peace because I know you are with family now. Just different ones (our angels)
