

Pauline M Varga

April 3, 1931 - December 14, 2021

PLYMOUTH – Pauline M. Varga gained her heavenly reward, passing away on Tuesday, December 14, 2021 in her home surrounded by her loving family. She was born on April 3, 1931 to the late Paul and Grace (Frost) Blevins and was 90 years-old at the time of her death.

She lived in Plymouth for 26 years coming from Koontz Lake, and on September 23, 1949 in Grovertown she married the love of her life Robert Varga. She was a charter member of the Koontz Lake Missionary Church where she dedicated much of her life even serving as the Sunday School Superintendent. Pauline loved to travel, but most of all she cherished her family dearly.

Pauline is survived by her loving husband Bob of Plymouth; one son James (Liz) Varga of Rolling Prairie; three daughters Susan (Tom) McGee of Plymouth, Joycelyn (Tim) Breniser of Land-O-Lakes, FL, and Jennifer (Jesse) Smith of San Antonio, TX; ten grandchildren Jerry Varga, Adria Thrasher, Katie Johnson, Andrew McGee, Kara Brooks, Caleb Breniser, Kyle Breniser, Carissa Breniser, Natalie Aemmer, and Cameron Aemmer; seventeen great grandchildren; and two great-great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents.

Visiting hours will be from Noon to 1:00 EST on Wednesday, December 22,

2021 at the Koontz Lake Missionary Church, 8044 N. IN 23, Walkerton (Koontz Lake), IN, 46574. Funeral Services will be at 1:00 EST on Wednesday, December 22, also at the Church. Burial will follow at New Oak Hill Cemetery, Plymouth, IN. In lieu of flowers Memorial contributions may be made to Koontz Lake Missionary Church.
