“ I will miss your humor. You could make anyone laugh with those words of yours. You always had kind words to say....but when something made you mad....you let it be known. Sitting in the waiting room with you when Velma was in the hospital will always be in my mind. I learned so much about your past and how much you truly love your family. I'm so glad that I stayed there with you and got to know something new about you. I'm also very sure that my Mom will always and forever remember your conversation that day on the deck. Like I said before, you always knew how to make someone laugh. You will forever be missed, and never replaced. You, Dad #2, will be SORELY missed. I will still stop to wave at you on that deck! Love you.

“ I know that we all have not been able to stay as close as when we were young, but I have never forgotten all the fun and holiday gatherings. Uncle Fran was always loving and kind to me. He will be with me always! I am so sorry I will not be able to make the trip up to the services. My heart and prayers will be with you.
