“ Randy, thanks for all the cups of coffee and chat you shared with me. You were my friend for many years. We sure had some delicious meals at the camp sight. We sure laughed a lot. I will miss you forever. Happy Journey Old Friend.

“ I remember Randy (and Corky) from high school days in Culver. However, I notified my son, Nathan, of Randy's passing. In addition to his sympathy, he also texted me saying, "...he actually taught me everything I know about shooting a bow and is greatly responsible for my love of bow hunting..." I thought you might want to know.
