“ Our lives have been joined together with Richard and Cathy because of the love we have for our adult children and grandchildren, and Marisa’s marriage to Daniel in 2009. We have been a part of many joyous occasions with them as we’ve dined out after graduations, joined in on wedding plans and we were all thrilled by the births of Liam, Nolan and Ewan. I know that Richard was proud of his family and looked forward to every chance he and Cathy had to spend time with them. We have known Marisa since she was in elementary school and was in Robby’s class and since she attended Urey Middle School where I worked in the Computer Lab. She is an outstanding young lady with such a kind heart that Richard and Cathy have every reason to feel proud of the daughter they raised together! Our hearts are heavy that you lost him so soon. Our prayers will be with you in days ahead.
