“ So sorry that we can not attend the celebration of life ceremony for your dad today. We have to be out of town this afternoon, but we certainly will have your family in our thoughts and prayers. We have missed seeing Bobby in the shoe shop, because that's where we usually had a chance to visit with him. Since he retired, we would see him occasionally in his yard or in Five Star and have a little time to visit. He was a kind and gentle soul and will be missed.
