

Robert Ellison

July 3, 1949 - May 14, 2025

Robert Jerry Ellison, age 75, of Plymouth, Indiana, passed away on May 14, 2025. Born on July 3, 1949, in Chicago, Illinois, Robert lived a life marked by strength, service, and adventure.

A proud veteran, Robert served with honor in the 101st Airborne Division during the Vietnam War. After returning home, he spent much of his life on the open road as a truck driver, traveling across the country and embracing the freedom of the highway.

Robert had a deep love for the simple joys of life. He found peace working on his hobby farm, excitement riding motorcycles, and entertainment in watching his favorite horror movies. His stories, humor, and unique outlook will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his beloved daughter Cathryn Ellison, his parents Marian and George Ellison, and his sister Georgina Bauerle.

His memory will live on through his children, Robert Joseph Ellison and Angela Ellison (Kyle McKinney); his cherished grandchildren, Damien McKinney and Gabriel McKinney; and his former wife and lifelong friend, Fayette Ellison.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date to honor Robert's memory and the impact he had on those around him.

“ I really don't have any memory of Robert J Ellison... I'm his Eldest daughter he was married to my mom who he beat and beat... Cheated on her the whole 9 yard oh let's not forget bashing in windows to my moms car oh and kidnapping... But if you ask Fay this is not true... funny the Vietnam war he never served he dishonorably discharged and sent to prison for slitting a guys thoart... When Cathryn died he decided to call me up and told me my moms Robbing me cause he got caused and received a petty check and he thought that was good and then proceeded to tell the wrong daughter died... it should've been me and not Cathryn... oh he has a beautiful granddaughter who almost 12 and a spitting image of him... lucky me huh 👍

“ I didn't really know him super well but he was always quick with a joke and whenever I saw him he was sat I front of the blaring tv watching horror movies while going back and forth between sleep and consciousness. Hope he's happy and well in the great beyond.
