“ Although he was our brother-in-law, we always fondly referred to him as "brother Bob". His resounding laugh will stay with us forever as will all of the beautiful memories spent with him, Cindy and their family. He will be missed dearly, but will never be forgotten.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Bob passing. I only met him that one time when I stayed at you place but I'm sure he was my kind of man. He was funny and seemed to take life in his stride. He also had the biggest hand gun I have ever seen. I hope they have a gun range in heaven for him to enjoy.

My family sends their condolences also. Lot's of Aloha to you all.

“ I will always remember his laugh, it was infectious, if he laughed,, everyone laughed! I will always remember the time (20 yrs,or so ago) my husband, at that time, brought him to the house. It was around Thanksgiving, I had baked pies for dinner, all seemed fine until I got to the cherry pie,, all the inside was gone, I asked them about it and all I could hear was that laugh. R.I.P ,Bob!

“ Many years ago when Bob came into our lives I can remember thinking "what in the hell". Years later, and many memories I am thankful for him. He brought many people into our lives that I'm glad I got to know. Many times he made me mad as can be but he always helped me when I needed it. I am most thankful that he loved my son and gave him guidance he needed. But most of all I am thankful for the life and time he and my mother shared together. They were great together.. Keep it rockin up there, tell Tom I said hi:)

“ I'm so sorry for Bob`s family loss. I always considered Bob to be my longest friendship even though as adults we rarely saw one another. Our mothers were best friends and they would come to our house and visit and Bobby and I played all over our 40 acre farm.

“ I have known Bob all of His life, He was like one of our family. Always enjoyed His take on life, and His sense of humor. Our family will miss Him. I will miss Him. Bob was one of those people who even if You didn't see Him for a year, nothing seemed to change, He was always the same old Bob. R.I.P. He is in a better place, with no more pain.
