

Ronald L. Eldridge

March 7, 1942 - March 17, 2024

PLYMOUTH – Ronald L. Eldridge of rural Plymouth passed away on Sunday, March 17, 2024 in his home following an illness. He was born on March 7, 1942 in Rensselaer, IN to the late Clarence C. and Lucille M. (Nelson) Eldridge, and was 82 years-old at the time of his death.

Ron lived in the area most of his life. Upon graduating high school he joined the US Army, after which he worked for a couple years in the steel mill before retiring from R & R Donnelley as a Proofreader. He was a deeply talented man who was a true artist. Ron drew portraits of people throughout his life as well as caricatures of the dialysis staff that would be treating him. He was an avid reader and historian, especially about World War II as well as being a cinema buff. Most of all Ron was extremely generous and caring about people.

He is survived by two nephews Larry R. (Mary) Eldridge of Star City and Eric Eldridge of Lafayette; one step-niece Darla Darling of Lafayette; and several great nieces, nephews and cousins. He is preceded in death by his parents and one brother Larry C. Eldridge.

Graveside services will be at 12:00 PM EDT Tuesday, March 26, 2024 at Grovertown Cemetery. There will not be further services or viewing. In lieu of flowers the family would like Memorial Contributions be made in Ron's memory to Fresenius Kidney Care Nephrology (2855 Miller Dr Ste 209,
