“ I was just at his home a week ago. We talked for a while. It was just him and I. The last thing I told him was that I love him. He gave me a big hug and a kiss. I will always remember him. ❤️

“ Remember roaming the lake as a kid, when his house was painted red, white and blue.. Thought he was the coolest guy around. the most knowledgeable person around in fishing and hunting.. Really nice guy. He will be missed. Sad, no more seeing his truck to by.. 😞 RIP Ronnie..

“ Ronnie I met you when I was 15 years old. You were a huge part of my family. You are a big reason my son is the fisherman he is. You started teaching him how to fish when he was 2 years old. I remember your patriotic chopper you road down 23 and beyond. You always had a good heart and an old soul. I will miss you and your contagious laugh. Love you brother Ronnie. Rest in peace my long time friend. ❤️

“ Ahh what memories I have with Ronnie growing up & after I was grown up. Hanging out when he had his cool Red, White, & Blue Motorcycle, or when u would bring in your catch of the day & have me weigh it on the scale at KLMarket when I work there & the fun times having a chat at the local pub or the legion. You had such a kind soul & I will never forget you. RIP Ronnie.

“ When I was growing up we lived across the street from the Maze brothers. They had a band at that time and we always liked listening to them play. My brother Jerry loved to go fishing with Ronnie and always wanted to be like Ronnie when it came to fishing. He taught Jerry how to fish and where to fish for the best catch. Everything Ronnie used to catch fish Jerry would come home and tell my Mom he needed to get the same stuff so he could catch as many fish as Ronnie. The Maze family was always kind to Jerry. I will miss seeing Ronnie around the lake. He was a great and kind guy to all. May you rest in peace.

A Friend

“ My memories of you I shall cherish as you always were a good friend. You were the first person I met here at the lake over 30 years ago. You always were a kind and gentle soul to those you cared about especially little children. How you always told my daughter that they could have lilacs when they bloomed and you you would go and cut them 2 bunches to bring home. You gave my youngest her thirst to fish when you brought out a cat that you were filleting. That darn fish was as big as her and she named it and buried it here in the yard. Always a hug to say hello to rescuing my yard from snappers. I still remember how the girls were so fascinated by your collection of arrowheads that you showed them when you learned they were native and the stories you would tell them. Your life was never easy, yet you always took on coolers of fish to scale and fillet even when your hands were getting bad for others to enjoy. What can I say accept that you will be missed and have touched many lives. Rest Peacefully Ronnie in that Big Blue Lake in the skies.. Debbie & family
