“ To Katie, there are no words that measure up to the sadness a heart feels when we lose someone we love. Just know that your mom is with the Lord. He has called her home but we have the memories to last us the rest of our own lives. Focus on the happy, the funny, even a sad time or two. The lessons she taught you, the inspirational moments, even the hard moments. They are all a part of your book of life. You cry, you smile, you regret, you love. You keep loving her. Always.
