“ My deepest love, prayers & sympathy to each of Rosemary's family & friends. she touched many hearts of CKLC residents, staff, and other family members. she was a deep spiritual holy woman who loved God always first and His words of Holy scripture. She used many of her gifts to touch many such as prayer, love of music and art. Rosemary embraced the good of the world and prayed always that stan would loose the battle. We shared our love for God and for beautiful clothes and trying to look our best inside and out spiritually & physically each day. I and many at CKLC will deeply miss Rosemary.

God bless you each,
Chaplain Margie

“ We will so miss Baba, she was a magnificent woman! I will always remember listening to her childhood stories and how things were "different back then", she was a beautiful, intelligent, witty woman, a lady! So very glad I was one of the blessed ones who knew her. Her legacy lives on in our hearts and in the smiling, laughing faces of her grandchildren! You will be missed sweet Baba.

“ Every time I think of Rosemary I see her smile...I was writing a message to June & I saw Rosemary in Heaven, her hands raised in praise, singing & dancing, but the most beautiful sight was the brilliant light shining on her smiling face. That light could only come from one place...I believe it was the very moment she saw her Lord & Savior Jesus!!

“ Our hearts are heavy, but our memories are beautiful ones. We will miss the beauty, smile, humor, intellect, insight, patriotism, faith, and love of this lady we affectionately call Baba. I am so grateful for the precious memories we have to cling to. I will forever hear her voice singing "Amen" from Lilies of the Field along with me and the boys as we took, unknowingly, our last stroll outside to the little chapel on the hill at CKLC this fall. We feel so blessed to have had her in our lives. I know she is rejoicing in heaven.

“ Praying every day for those who are missing this beautiful lady right now....but know we will all be seeing her again in what will seem like a blink. She touched every life she came in contact with in a remarkable and Godly way. There is no doubt that she is smiling and in His joyful Glory right now. Love and hugs to each of you.
