“ Dear family of Sam Soltis,
I am adding my prayers and thoughts to those of others as you face Sam's passing. I remember him walking the campus and stopping to check in or chat. He was a welcoming and generous person to have with us in our security department and as part of the Ministry Center community. I know you will miss his presence yet I hope his presence in this different way will give you some comfort. May you gradually know God's peace in the midst of these days. Take care and peace, Sister Kathy Haas, PHJC

“ Chris, I'm sorry to hear of Sam's passing. I know he took joy and comfort in having you with him through the years and the loving care you gave him during his illness. I am sure his heart is sad at his children's behavior.

“ Chris, I'm so sorry after almost 20 years with him and all the memories !!
It's a disgrace that his children did not even mention you as his companion. Well, we know who did what for him and how you loved each other!! Our hearts goes out to you. All our love and prayers to YOU!
