“ One of the things I will always remember about Steve is that bigger than life grin/smile he had which usually accompanied a hearty chuckle along with a story about some "event" that occurred with or without (usually without) said subject's knowledge. I also remember one Christmas he came to family dinner ; seeing my Mom bustling about cooking for the group, he asked her if she would like a drink. So, he handed her a glass filled with liquid and ice. After her first swallow of what she thought was ice water - she looked at Steve, who had that bigger than life grin on his face, and yelled - Steve - you brat!!! He had handed her vodka on the rocks!!! His grin only widened!! You will be missed, Steve.

“ Stevie's been my husband's dear friend for-many years. When we were first engaged my husband brought him to my mom's house. Stevie kept staring at a picture of my maternal grandparents on the table. Finally he says that looks just like my grandpa. We got to talking and realized our moms were cousins! Omg we were related! He was so loved by both of our families. We always shared such fun times vacationing , boating , partying and just hanging out. Such a great person to talk to and could always make you laugh. Always ready to help you out. Stevie always felt like the brother I never had. I'm going to miss you so very much. Love, Janie

“ I'll never forget the first time I met Steve. We were both 3 years old at the time. My family pulled up to the cottage my grandma bought across the street from Steve's. When he saw me get out of the he ran over and said “wanna play?” and that started our 69 years of friendship and memories. Being at the lake will never be the same for me. You were my brother. Miss you. Love you Moe.

“ Everyone remembers Steve as a golfer but I'll always remember Steve for his waterskiing prowess! I was just a kid in the 70's sitting on the pier at Koontz Lake and Steve would come skiing past us barefoot. I was always astonished how he could do that! My mom was a dear friend and ironically she passed exactly one week before Steve. She always teased Steve about how she'd ski with him but only if she could be on the top of the pyramid :) He'd always smile that smile when she'd tease him. Thanks for the great memories Steve - Our deepest sympathy to the Moerman family.

“ So sorry for your loss Jack. Mo was a great guy to be around, we never got to fish Hudson Lake but I can always laugh about us looking for his radiator cap in my driveway, supposedly on the way to the lake. Never found it til you got home. RIP in peace my friend, keep hitting them straight and leave a few fish for the rest of us.

“ Played a lot of golf with Steve always a pleasure. He was searching for a hole in 1 on number 14 that would complete him having aced all of the par 3s at the pines! He will just have to finish that quest in heaven.

“ Steve was a lifelong friend. The stories go back as far as second grade and are far too many to tell. He was in our wedding and built our home (and two others for us). Our lives intertwined in so many ways. There are so many good things that we can say about him, the great sense of humor, that killer smile, his dedication to doing a great job on whatever he was building. Rest in peace, dear friend.

“ What a trooper he was!!! He fought his battles all the way. His devout compassion for playing a good game of golf was admirable. Steve never wanted to abandon his Mother but our Lord has other chores for him in heaven and God surely will welcome him with a kind gentle smile. Bon Voyage Steve.
