“ I still can't believe this. It's so surreal. Craig and I just talked to you and Rhianna a few days after Christmas at Walmart. You seemed fine. I wish I'd have gotten one of your big burly hugs. I'm glad I told you I love you. I know you're with all your grandparents and Aunt Linda. You and Aunt Linda were both taken to soon. You were such a kindhearted soul and would do anything for anyone. Also, a jokester. Even though we called you Little Stevie you were a big man. Bigger than your dad. Rhianna, Christin, and Cortney, we love you all and feel your pain. If we can do anything, please let us know. You're always a part of this family and we love you. Love, hugs and prayers to you all. Aunt Cheryl & Uncle Richard.

“ Steve was a great man and friend, I haven't known him or Rhianna very long, but seems like a long time, have lots of memories from him at our Saturday meets! He was always offering to help in anyway he could didn't matter what it was. He most recently volunteered at our Halloween party to run the basketball shoot. I remember looking over there and he had done formed teams and they kids was all playing basketball, they all loved it! Hearing that he had passed so unexpectedly hit me hard. We all loved Steve and Rhianna very much!

“ Steve was one of a kind!, He had a beautiful soul, and he was one of the most giving and loving humans I have known. He always thought of others before himself! If he was your friend you were lucky! He was a wonderful husband, dad, grandpa, and friend to so many. He definitely left his mark here on earth. My life was better because he had been in it. He taught me a lot about giving and helping others. I will always remember you Steve. Prayers, love, and hugs to his family. Love, Peggy Arquette

“ Camping, fishing, family gatherings, growing up through the school years... I have so many memories of "Little Stevie". I'll miss him always calling me Goober, and I'll miss his big ol' heart even more. I will always hear his easy-going laughter in my mind whenever I think of him. Becky, Steve, Rhianna, Christin, and Courtney, I mourn his loss with you. God bless you.

“ Steve was my nephew. Big man with an even bigger heart. Can't recall ever seeing him angry or not willing to lend a hand to those who needed help. My heart goes out to Rhianna, Christin, and Courtney. I pray that you find comfort in this time of need. Also to Steve Howard Sr. and my Sister Becky, may the Good Lord provide you a way to find peace during this time of pain. Love you all.
