“ I am sharing in your sorrow today. Tom was the first cousin closest to me in age. We spent a lot of time in Sunday School and VBS together. I was so glad for his presence. He was able to keep me laughing! I wish all of you God's comfort in the days ahead.

“ My heartfelt condolences to all in the Norem family. We've lost the second of our generation of cousins and the grief runs deep. I cherish the visit Tom & Dick made to Mom & Dad's in Brems while I was home last July. We shared laughs as we shared memories and family news. I will miss Tom's laughter. It was fun to make him laugh. May God's grace give you comfort and peace at this time of your loss.
