“ I remember the day Tracy and her family moved to town . Tracy was always so quiet and Wendy was so full of words .Then came the classic love story when boy meets girl Tracy and Richie wrote their own love story and put so much meaning into each other which gave them a lifetime full of memories to carry. That alone is truly something to be proud of and I'm sure they observed their parents for years and learned how to build a marriage up and don't let go of one another .Richie and Tracy you both led by great examples for your children and showed them what unconditional love is and the meaning that lays behind it all . Tracy we will speak of you often and cherish the memories you leave with in each of us . Rest easy now for you are free ?
