“ Thinking of this kind, gentle, super funny woman today... I didn't know Ms. Vivian for long, but I'm eternally grateful for the time we were able to spend together when I was helping her son Harold care for her from time to time. She became like family and she once told me she loved my infant son as if he were her own grandchild. The world is slightly less sweet without Vivian in it - over a decade later she's still in my heart.
