“ Dear Kirk, David and I both wanted to send you our deepest sympathies since we found out that you lost your Dad. Even though we have not been near you or your gracious family in many years, we remember how kindly we were always treated at your home. Please know that we have never forgotten you or your family as the years passed by. I hope that our "dual message" eases your pain during these tough days. Yours Truly, Amy Creed, Dallas TX David Creed, Chicago, IL (105 Maple Street, Walkerton)
